FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 3 186[illegible]

City Improvements

The delightful weather of the present week has set all our mechanics in active motion There is scarcely a block within the city limits upon which new buildings are not being erected, or old ones remodeled and improved More work of this sort is going on at the present time than ever before and we think we may safely say that twice as many stores and dwellings will be put up this season as have been in any previous summer. A large proportion of these are costly and substantial structures, which will add immensely to the prosperous appearance of the city, and the value of real estate There has been and still is a great and daily increasing demand for private residences and we are glad to perceive that this will at least in some measure, be supplied, there is no danger, however, of any surplus, or of vacant dwellings or stores, and as there is every reason to expect a constant increase of our population by the coming of new families, we hope that our builders and owners of real estate will provide in advance for what is certain to be needed Money wisely invested in this way is always safe, and earns a better income, with less anxiety and risk than in any other speculation

GEN HOOKER —The following from the Boston Post, a Democratic war journal contrasts strangely with what the peace Democrats say of Gen Hooker, No more scorching rebuke could be administered to the secession sympathisers who would sneer down Gen Hooker and paralyze and demoralize the Army of the Potomac, than the few manly words of the Post;

The country is anxious that Gen Hooker should receive every support that can be rendered What is wrong in officers or camp should be reformed The commander is a noble man—a brave and well drilled General capable of leading the grand army under him to victory, if properly seconded by the Administration

We can not afford to sacrifice more Generals of his stamp to hide the stupidity or malice of others The people are watching public agents with a vigilance that will detect and a fearless impartiality that will expose incompetency, infidelity and enviousness in whomsoever they may appear The great cause at issue overrides all mere partisan purposes, and only he who is true can escape the lash of scorn

THE SKEDADDLERS TO CANADA —The immigration statistics of Canada show that the number of skedaddlers from the Union States who became frightened at the prospect of a draft, numbered 1,942 These persons took with them an average of $1,000 each in American silver, making an aggregate of nearly $2,000,000 This accounts, in part for the plethora of United States coin, of which the Canadians make such complaint

ADVICES FROM RICHMOND —A Richmond dispatch of February 20th, referring to one of Vallandigham's recent speeches, says

This speech looks something like a lucid interval in the Northern mind Their army will be 300,000 only on paper Let us keep ours up to 500,000, and dictate peace at Washington or Alexandria

There are enlightened people down South One of our bold Zouaves asked an old farmer in South Carolina why he did not take a newspaper "Because," said he "when my father died he left me a heap of papers, and I've never had time to read 'em yet."

The Duke of Devonshire offered £1,000 for the bullet which was extracted from Garibaldi's foot but failed to obtain it

Since the establishment of Camp Douglas six hundred and forty bodies of rebel soldiers have been buried in Potter's Field at Chicago

Pennsylvania last season exported [illegible] the value of thirty four millions of dollars Of coal and [illegible] more than [illegible] California [illegible] of gold

Gen Hunter has notified the express companies that all crinolines and wearers of it are henceforth contraband Officers wives will all be sent North

A Baltimore contractor is [illegible] to have made $947 a day for some months by chartering unseaworthy vessels for the Banks expedition

The original manuscript of Gray's Elegy, consisting of two small sheets written over closely and much mutilated, sold at auction in London recently for one hundred pounds sterling

Late advices from Alexandria state that the crop of cotton in Egypt promises to be most abundant this year There will not be less than 180,000 bales for export the quantity last year having been only 105,000

The Emperor of Russia has issued a ukase to the effect that all public functionaries no matter how high shall henceforth be liable like other persons to arrest and imprisonment if they do not pay their debts

The sale of Confederate obligations in London is said to have been very successful The obligations are to deliver cotton at from 3d to 4d per pound, at a Confederate port within fourteen days after the Confederacy is acknowledged

It is estimated that the entire milk crop of the United States for the year 1862 reaches $160,000,000 New York State produces as much milk (and water) as all the New England States, together with New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland

Edward S Tobey A A Lawrence and James M Beebe have petitioned the Massachusetts Legislature to be incorporated as the "American Steamship Company," with a capital of two millions of dollars The steamers are to run between Boston and Europe

The body of a Mrs Barbour buried fourteen years ago in a cemetery in Pittsburg was exhumed recently and found to be petrified The corpse was considerably enlarged and very heavy, the united strength of four or five men being required to handle it

Negrophobia has broken out in a very violent form in the New Jersey Legislature An act has been passed excluding from the schools of the Capital all colored children and it is not impossible that the same prohibition may be applied to the schools of other parts of the State

Gen Hooker recently said to a New Jersey chaplain that he had unlimited power no restrictions whatever embarrassing his operations "I have men enough" he said to whip the Rebels in front, and to take care of traitors in the rear, and I mean to do what the country expects at my hands"

Ex Senator Pugh, of Ohio while in Washington, a few days ago, confessed to the existence of a plot for turning the Northwest with the South, and against the present Administration and stated that no power under heaven can prevent the consummation of a plan which he says will secure the best interests of the Southwest

The marriage of the dwarf, Tom Thumb and Lavina Warren came off as per announcement in Grace Church New York, The little bride was attired in a dress of the most expensive white satin The bridegroom was a miniature of all other fashionable bridegrooms in every item of costume and bearing and the dwarf groomsman and bridesmaid were equally scrupulous in their fidelity to full grown models

The official reports of Capt Ingraham and Commander Tucker have been published in the Charleston papers Their account of the action off the harbor agrees, substantially, with that given by our own officers but they make no mention of the Princess Royal, and do not seem to have been aware what a loss they were sustaining or what a prize we carried off They make no pretense of having lifted the blockade—say nothing about it, in fact

We refer those who wish to ascertain the real condition of the rebels says the N Y Herald to the order of Gen Beauregard, calling upon the people of Charleston and Savannah to arm themselves with pikes and scythes Pretty weapons these will be against our Minie rifles at twelve hundred yards or our Dahlgrens and Parrotts, with a range of three or four miles Beauregard had better recommend his followers to take to the turnpikes when our armies and Monitors approach

The Philadelphia Inquirer tells the following good story "A gentleman of our city well known to the literary world with a view of preparing biographical sketches of our most prominent military leaders for future publication recently forwarded circulars to the Major Generals and Brigadiers of our army One of these was received by Gen Butler requesting him to fill up the annexed blanks with his birth place and age together with the most remarkable events in his military career In a few days it was returned with his birth place and age properly set forth and with the blank devoted to military exploits containing the following I have done everything I was told to do"

The bogus news of the breaking of the blockade at Charleston by the rebel rams was published in the N Y Herald just in time to be carried to Europe by the steamer Arabia It was feared that the circulation of that news in Europe for a week before it could be contradicted would have a very injurious effect upon our affairs there This was on Wednesday On Thursday night at 11 o'clock a dispatch was received in Boston from Washington of a favorable character which was instantly transmitted to Halifax and there put on board the steamer with instructions to transmit it from Queenstown in Ireland to England whence it would be sent to every capital in Europe some two days before the Herald could reach the shores of England —Thus for once truth outran the lie

EDITOR [illegible]

On [illegible] passing events in our little village [illegible] and I thought that perhaps it would interest the readers of the OREGONIAN to know of them

The 7th of May next will be the first regular commencement day of the Pacific University and [illegible] Oregon's first regular college graduate takes his degree as A B On the same day at [illegible] P M Hon Amory Holbrook will deliver the annual [illegible] address and in the evening the [illegible] exhibition of the Academy and College will be held This we expect to be a grand affair as it is to be on a new and as we think an improved plan Every thing except the music is to be original,—oration essays dialogues personifications and tableaux—all entirely original and great care is being taken to get new and beautiful music In short we are sparing neither money time or trouble to make our exhibition an interesting one

An invitation is extended to all the friends of education to attend The examination commences on Monday May 4th

Other things in our village are not worth noticing, except we are having fine weather and the roads are fast getting good More anon

For the information of the generous contributors to this fund in Oregon and Washington Territory it is proper to state that I have received from the President and Treasurer of the Sanitary Commission acknowledgements of the receipt by them of $23,288 01 and there is now on the way to New York $804 88 cents making in all $24,092 89 thus realizing a profit of $4,220 20 on the coin payments which have been nearly $18,000

In obtaining exchange for remittance, I have endeavored to make the most advantageous terms for the Commission, and am greatly indebted in this respect and also for facilities in forwarding it to New York to Gen L H Allen of San Francisco and to the attentive agents of Wells Fargo & Co who have, without charge done every thing in their power to render assistance

THE TRAITOR CONVENTION AT FRANKFORT —The Louisville Journal says "The Convention was as thoroughly a rebel Convention as any ever held in the rebel Confederacy Its members were among the most rancorous rebels in our State They met to inaugurate a movement for carrying Kentucky out of the Union They may deny this but they all know it as well as they know that they live In taking the name of 'democrats,' instead of that of rebel they but added hypocrisy and cowardice to contemplated treason They chose their time when they believed that the odiousness of the radical acts of the Administration had prepared or was rapidly preparing, the Kentucky mind for revolt against the Union, when Humphrey Marshall was threatening the State in one direction and Morgan was reported to be already invading it with a very heavy cavalry force from another when they saw and heard and felt that the feelings and passions of our people were everywhere heaving and dashing like the waves of a stormy sea when in fact our soil might be considered the actual theatre of war, and their purpose confidently entertained, was to prepare their friends in every county and neighborhood to rise up in insurrection, and join the enemy at his coming"

WHO ARE ENTITLED TO PENSIONS?—The question is often asked, Who are entitled to pensions? The act of Congress passed July, 1862 made liberal provisions to disabled or invalid soldiers who have served in the Union army since March 4th 1861 and also to all widows and children, (under 16 years of age) as well as mothers and dependent sisters of soldiers killed in battle or who shall die by reason of wounds received or disease contracted while in service and in the line of duty —The provisions as a whole, are much more liberal than the old pension laws for the Revolution or the war of 1812 The amount of pensions for total disability is fixed as follows

Non-commissioned officers music ans and privates per month	$8
Second Lieutenants	15
First Lieutenants	1
Captains	20
Majors	25
All officers of higher rank	30

But a large majority of those accepted as pensioners are only partially disabled and the pension is rated according to their disability, which may be one fourth, one third one half, two thirds three fourths etc The disability is based on the proportion which the effect of a wound received or disease contracted in public service actually disables one from obtaining a livelihood —S F Bulletin

HOW TO READ SHOULDER STRAPS —The rank and arm of the service of military officers are designated as follows,

The shoulder straps of a Major General bear two silver embroidered stars one on each end of the strap a Brigadier General has one silver star only a Colonel has a silver embroidered spread eagle, a Lieutenant Colonel has two silver embroidered leaves, one at each end of the strap a Major has two embroidered leaves, similarly placed A Captain has two gold bars at each end of the strap a First Lieutenant one gold bar at each end, and a Second Lieutenant no bars at all

The cloth of the strap by its color distinguishes the arm of the service, For general and staff officers it is dark blue for artillery scarlet for infantry sky blue for riflemen green and for cavalry orange color

Non commissioned officers are indicated by chevrons or stripes on the coat sleeve of the uniform [illegible] Corporals wear two stripes Sergeants three Orderly Sergeants have a lozenge or diamond shaped figure within the angle of the chevrons Sergeant Majors have the three stripes of a Sergeant completed into a triangle, base uppermost

SLAVES AT A DISCOUNT —The appraisers of the slave property of the late Charles Carroll of Maryland one of the largest slave owners in the State have made returns, assessing the value of one hundred and thirty slaves at an average of five dollars This is the highest price they could name after consulting with neutral slave owners [illegible] This [illegible] a striking illustration of the [illegible] of slave property by the rebellion and will have a powerful influence in Maryland

GEN BEAUREGARD AND CALLING FOR MORE DEFENDERS OF CHARLESTON —The Richmond Dispatch intimates that Beauregard will be superseded in the command of Charleston This is doubtless a mistake as Richmond journals of a later date contain Beauregard's proclamation issued in view of the threatened attack upon Charleston and Savannah The rebel chief is evidently frightened, for in calling upon the Carolinians and Georgians to rush to arms he begs of them not to [illegible] exciting in the [illegible] of weapons as pikes and scythes will do for exterminating their enemy and spades and shovels for protecting their breasts He also counsels all persons who are unable to take an active part in the pending conflict, to retire

An American steamer was delayed on a river by a dense fog and was compelled to lay to for several hours An impatient passenger approached the captain with the inquiry "I say Mr Pilot are you going to start soon?" "As soon as the fog clears up" blandly replied the captain "Well but it's starlight overhead now" urged the passenger "Oh yes" replied the captain with a mischievous twinkle in the left eye, "but we are not going that way"

Alonzo was taken to church for the first time The services had not begun Deacon Wells a bald headed man came in Alonzo looked at him curiously Mr Ostrom came down the aisle and he had no hair where the hair ought to grow Alonzo was fidgety Squire Jones next had a Moult Bald walked in Alonzo [illegible] no longer In a clear ringing voice he cried

"Oh ma [illegible] here comes another man with a skinned head!"

[illegible] MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THEATRE.—There was a fair audience to [illegible] the play of the "Dead Heart" at the theatre last night, and this beautiful drama was exceedingly well rendered. There will be no performance to-night. Mr. G. B. Waldron will take a benefit on Saturday night, and as he richly deserves a "rouser," we doubt not a full house will greet him upon that occasion. An excellent programme will be offered, and everything that can be done to interest and please may be expected.

THIRD WARD MEETING.—At the third ward meeting, last night, Mr. A. C. R. Shaw was elected Chairman and R. J. Ladd, Secretary. [illegible] S. Coffin, R. J. Ladd and Henry Law were elected Delegates to the City Convention, and were empowered, if the First and Second Wards had not elected Delegates to meet with them, to call a mass meeting of the citizens of Portland, to be held at the Court [illegible], on Saturday evening, to nominate city and ward officers. The meeting then adjourned [illegible] Saturday evening to nominate Councilmen.

FAILED TO MEET.—The Union voters of the First and Second Wards failed to hold meetings for the nomination of candidates for the Council, and the election of delegates to the City Convention this evening. We hope they will take the matter in hand, and hold meetings this evening, or at least join the call for a [illegible] meeting on Saturday evening.

[illegible] OF FREIGHT AND PASSAGE.—By [illegible] to advertisement, it will be observed that the Oregon Steam Navigation Company has [illegible] the price of freight to ten dollars per ton to this city to Dalles, on and after Monday, the 6th inst. The steamer Julia, stock boat, [illegible] every morning, Sundays excepted, at eight o'clock; passage, $5, horses or mules, $2 50; from Portland to Cascades [illegible], $1, horses or mules, $1.

CROCKERY AT AUCTION.—Mr. Mansfield will hold [illegible] large sale of Crockery and Merchandise, at his auction house, No. 50 Front street, on Monday next.

[illegible] TO THE MINES.—One hundred and [illegible] persons went up by the boats to [illegible] Oregon on Wednesday.

[illegible] Harmony Lodge, No. 12, F. & A. M., holds [illegible] on the 2d and 4th Mondays of each [illegible] o'clock P. M. Brothers in good standing are [illegible] By order of W. M.

[illegible] Company!—The ZOU ZOUS will [illegible] at the Drill Room, for the purpose of a [illegible] order of F. N. PLUMMER, Drill Master.

[illegible]—The annual meeting of the First Hebrew [illegible] Association will be held on Sunday, the 5th [illegible] o'clock P. M., at the Council Room. A [illegible] is requested.
By order of the President.
A. BRSHWILER, Secretary.
[illegible], April 1st, 1863.

[illegible] Balsam!—Every intelligent man [illegible] who is suffering from CONSUMPTION, or any [illegible] of the Throat or Lungs, and wishes to find the best remedy, will be amply repaid for examining the certificates and statements of esteemed citizens, [illegible] of DR. HALL'S BALSAM, a remedy which has the [illegible] of scientific men.
[illegible] REDINGTON & CO.,
General Agents for the Pacific Coast.
[illegible] Front street, San Francisco.

[illegible] Meeting of the Trustees of the [illegible] and Female Seminary, at the Academy, [illegible] Friday evening, April 3d, at 7½ o'clock, is called. A full attendance is requested.
THOMAS H. PEARNE, Prest.
[illegible], April 2d, 1863.

[illegible], John Day and the Powder River Gold Mines!

THROUGH WITH [illegible] DETENTION!

The only safe and sure way for miners to reach the new [illegible], without being detained, is to secure their [illegible] in Portland!

[illegible] to go either by land or water, from the Dalles to the New Diggings!

[illegible],000 pounds choice Oregon Bacon, 30,000 pounds extra fine Flour, 10,000 pounds of assorted Beans, 300 pairs of Oregon Gray Blankets, together with a full supply of [illegible], Boots, Shoes and all kinds of mining articles, can now be obtained at HARKER BROS.,
No. 123, Front street, opposite the Upper Wharf.
Portland, March 4, 1863. d&f

Storage.—THE FIRE-PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite [illegible] House, is the only building, "not made of wood," at the Dalles, where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although [illegible] in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.
Dalles, Jan 20, 1863. 1m RASEY BIVEN.
N. B. A liberal discount made for lots of 50 tons or more, where goods are Stored for more than one month.

TO THE PUBLIC
OF THE
PACIFIC COAST:

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS!

THE LARGE AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING DEMAND FOR HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS on the Pacific coast, renders it the especial duty [illegible] COUNTERFEITS which have [illegible] California and other parts of [illegible] IMPOSTERS who have PIRATED [illegible] RESTORATIVE.

[illegible] by selecting the most [illegible] Some dealers, of whom better things might have been expected, have connived at the IMPOSITION, for the purpose of sharing in the plunder. On the principle that the receiver is as culpable as the thief, and that the passer of spurious money is as criminal as the forger, the makers and venders of COUNTERFEIT HOSTETTER'S BITTERS stand on the same moral level.

[illegible] are cautioned not to purchase any preparation [illegible] HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS [illegible] first scrutinizing well the packages and bottles, so as to be certain that they get the GENUINE, or purchase from dealers of known integrity, who would not be guilty of selling SPURIOUS ARTICLES, or of the Cablefornia Agents, Messrs. Hostetter, Smith & Dean, No. 227 [illegible] Block, San Francisco.

THE COUNTERFEITERS doubtless hoped, and expected, that at [illegible] thousands of miles away from the source of the GENUINE BITTERS they would be able to palm off their SPURIOUS COMPOUND with less chance of detection [illegible]. In this expectation they will be deceived. The [illegible] determined to protect themselves [illegible] and their [illegible] customers against its baneful consequences and have no doubt that through their [illegible] the [illegible] of the press, and the instrumentality of the law, they will succeed in crushing IMPOSTERS in [illegible] of operation, as they have already crushed [illegible].

The [illegible] acceptance of the BITTERS as the best [illegible] and remedy for the malarious diseases of unhealthy soils and climates, is a just tribute to the [illegible] and restoring properties of the preparation. Whoever goes to the gold mines, or travels through or settles in any portion of our Pacific territory, without previously furnishing himself with a supply of this unequalled [illegible] to the effect of insalubrious air and bad water, [illegible] the imminent risk of health and [illegible] of a volume of testimony to its sanative and corrective properties which ought to satisfy the most [illegible]. The unacclimatized will find it the best protection against the epidemic diseases of the country, and against all epidemic maladies. Furnished with this preventive [illegible] may fearlessly prosecute his search for gold and silver, in valleys and plains where less fortunate predecessors have left their bones. The discolored [illegible] water which serves alike to quench his [illegible] and [illegible] his treasure, may be drunk with impunity [illegible] with this powerful and agreeable corrective, and the [illegible] which reeks from the soil of the mining [illegible] will have no injurious effect upon his system, if [illegible] by this pure and wholesome invigorant and stomachic. He may sleep wrapped in his blanket or half [illegible] in the damp ground by night, and work [illegible] of the sun by day, without incurring the [illegible] of remittent fever, diarrhea, dysentery and [illegible], provided he reinforces his constitution, his appetite and his strength, by a moderate and regular use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. Miners and [illegible] who are obliged to live wholly or chiefly on animal [illegible] without vegetables, will find the preparation invaluable as a protective against scurvy and other scorbutic diseases.

Of the above mentioned uses of the BITTERS, the proprietors of the preparation do not of course speak from actual experience, but they have the next best evidence in the world, viz: THE SPONTANEOUS TESTIMONY of multitudes of [illegible] Californians, and of hundreds NOW ENGAGED IN MINING in various parts of the Pacific [illegible].

While recommending their Bitters strongly and earnestly as a preventive, the undersigned would call attention also to its eminent qualities as a restorative. In fever and ague, dumb ague and all that class of intermittents, it is the best medicine that can be taken to break up the chills and restore the strength of the patient. For dyspepsia and every form of indigestion, it is an absolute specific, combining the properties of a gentle cathartic with those of an alterative and mild stimulant; it has an excellent effect in constipation, colic, piles, sickness at the stomach, nervous headache, spasms, and disorders of the blood and bowels generally. It also possesses important anti-billious elements, and as a means of regulating the action of the liver and other secretive organs, has no equal among the medicines of the day. Ladies in delicate health, from whatever cause arising, will find great benefit from its cordial and invigorating properties; and as an Elixir Vitæ for the aged and decrepit, it stands alone among vegetable tonics. In fact, HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS can be conscientiously recommended, on the authority of perhaps the strongest array of voluntary witnesses that have ever testified to the value of any advertised preparation, as the purest, the most reliable, the most general and successful, constitutional and physical invigorant, preventive and restorative, now before the public.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases; If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

The Inn of Rouelle.

In a gloomy day in the month of November, a traveler, on horseback, stopped at the door of an inn, in the village of Rouelle, which adjoins the park of Malmaison. The hostess went out to receive him, and having given his horse to the stable boy, he ordered dinner. He was shown into the best room in the house, and the busy hostess set about preparing the repast. In a few minutes another traveler, on horseback, stopped at the inn, and also ordered dinner.

'I am very sorry that I cannot accommodate you, sir,' said the hostess; "but everything we have in the house has been bespoke by a gentleman who arrived a few minutes before you.'

"Go up stairs," said the traveler, "and tell your guest I shall be obliged to him if he will permit me to share his dinner, and I will defray my portion of the expense."

The hostess delivered the message to the first traveler, who politely replied

"Tell the gentleman I shall be glad of his company but that it is not my practice to accept payment from persons whom I invite to dine with me."

The second traveler accordingly went up stairs, and, having expressed his acknowledgments for the kind reception he had received, they both sat down to the table.

The dinner was as cheerful as could be expected, considering the short acquaintance of the parties; but during the dessert, when some excellent wine was placed before them, the conversation became more unrestrained, and the second traveler ventured to ask his obliging Amphitryon what had brought him to that part of the country, where he appeared to be a stranger

"I have been ordered here," he replied, "by the cardinal."

"By the cardinal!" resumed his companion

"Yes, sir."

"Pardon my curiosity, sir, if I inquire whether you have given his eminence any offense?"

"By no means," replied the first traveler, "and it is only to free myself from any such imputation that I have come here. The fact is, there has been published at Rochelle, my native town, a virulent satire upon the public conduct and personal character of the cardinal. several copies of which have been addressed to the king, and, though I never in my life wrote a single word that has appeared in print, I am unjustly accused of being the author of this pamphlet. Nothing obtains such ready belief as the whisperings of folly and ill-nature; and I have, therefore, lost no time in obeying the summons of his eminence, in the hope of effectually refuting the charge that is brought against me."

"Sir," said his companion, with an expression of marked anxiety, "return thanks to Providence for the fortunate accident that introduced me to you to-day. I also have been summoned hither by the cardinal, and for no other purpose, I am convinced, than that of beheading you."

A thrill of horror passed through the frame of the person to whom these words were addressed.

"Yes, sir," resumed the speaker, "my task would have been to behead you. I am the executioner of a neighboring town, and whenever the cardinal has any secret act of vengeance to perform, I receive orders to repair to the castle. The particulars I have just heard you relate, together with the hour of your appointment here, all convince me beyond a doubt, that you are marked out as a victim. But fear nothing. I will secure your escape. Order your horse instantly and go with me. I will acquit myself of the debt of gratitude which your courtesy has imposed upon me."

The horror and alarm of the poor traveler may be more easily conceived than described. He instantly ordered the horses to be saddled, and having paid the bill, he and his companion set out, taking a private way through the wood of Bertrand.

"Do you see," said the guide, as they approached the castle, "that grated window which almost reaches the crannies of the central turret! In that dungeon, sentences against which there is no appeal, are pronounced and executed, and the mutilated bodies of the victims are hurried into the moat below, where they are speedily destroyed by quicklime. Neglect not to observe my instructions. Conceal yourself behind that hedge, and if within the space of an hour you see a light glimmering at the window which I have pointed out, then you may conclude that I am ordered here to execute vengeance upon another; but if, on the contrary, you see no light, rely on it that you yourself are the intended victim. In that case, lose not a moment. Profit by the darkness of the night and the swiftness of your horse. Gain the frontier and there plead your cause as you think fit. But permit me to tell you, that it is absurd to seek to justify yourself against the imputation of an offense which you have not committed; for, where despotism reigns, truth and justice are powerless."

Having expressed unbounded gratitude to his tutelar saint, the traveler withdrew to his hiding-place. The suspicions of the cardinal's agent proved well founded. No light appeared at the window of the turret, and at the expiration of an hour the traveler galloped off. He immediately quitted France, and did not venture back until after the death of the cardinal.

On returning to his native country, his first business was to visit the inn of Rouelle, and to make inquiries respecting his benefactor, who, however, had not been heard of for several years. He then related his adventure, which has since become a local tradition, and has conferred celebrity on the inn of Rouelle, known by the sign of the Cheval Blanc. The room in which the two travelers dined is shown to this day, and is called la salle de bon secours.

Brigadier General Wm. N Pemberton, the chief of the artillery in the armies of Gen Lee in Virginia, is an Episcopal minister. He, like Gen Polk, was a graduate of West Point, and became a minister, but divested himself of the surplice in the beginning of this war, and as captain of artillery distinguished himself at the first battle of Manassas. Step by step he has risen to the highest position in the artillery service of the Confederacy.

There is a fearful mortality among the rebel prisoners brought to Chicago from the Southwest. Nearly one hundred (ninety three) died during one week. They were in a wretched condition when they arrived, nearly one thousand being under the surgeon's care. The diseases are those induced by want and exposure in the rebel camps, being principally typhoid fever, pneumonia and other affections of the lungs and throat.

The Winsted (Conn.) Herald is "sarkasticle." It says the time has come when "every body can't wear calico," and the pampered children of wealth who can afford it, delight to sport it in the face of the poorer classes who can get nothing better than silks.

It is stated that Louis Napoleon tried to get some negroes from New Orleans before he kidnapped the Nubians by the Viceroy's permission, for the Mexican service. His application was refused.

AYER'S Catharctic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK. Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect,

ED W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion,

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. Co., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

The GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY!

Thorn's Compound Extract of

COPAIBA AND SARSAPARILLA

POSSESSES advantages not enjoyed by any other article for the cure of Sexual Diseases, and which must, with an enlightened public, render it highly popular, as a desideratum long sought for in the medical world, it needs no confinement or change of diet. In its form of a paste it is entirely tasteless, and causes no unpleasant sensation to the patient

It has acquired the utmost fame in almost every part of Europe. It has been examined, approved of and sanctioned by the faculty of medicine, and recommended by the most eminent of the profession

As the above valuable preparation has been extensively counterfeited by unprincipled parties in the United States, SECURE THE GENUINE, observe this LABEL bound on and covering the bottom of each Pot

J. B. Thorn, Chemist, London, John A. Tarrant, New York, Sole Agent for the United States

The Stamp on each pot will also bear the names of the proprietor and the United States Agent

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS will observe on each dozen package the following label

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The increased reputation and great demand for Thorn's Compound Extract of Copaiba and Sarsaparilla, have been inducements to others to offer imitations of this valuable medicine. Venders are particularly warned of this fact that they may be on their guard, and not dispose of any impure article, calculated to injure their reputation and destroy the merits of the original preparation. To obviate which the subscriber (successor to James Tarrant, by whom it was first introduced into the United States) has attached his signature to this caution, to counterfeit which is forgery.
